

Orinda Overpass Probably Will Be Area's 1st Project

Indications are "self-evident" that the Orinda overpass will be constructed before either the Lafayette Freeway or the Walnut Creek By-Pass, District Engineer L. A. Weymouth of the State Division of Highways said yesterday.

After completion of the Orinda overpass, the Lafayette Freeway will probably be the next major highway project

Steel Shortage May Hamper Orinda Schools

Fearful that the current steel shortage may hamper the Orinda Union School District's vital need for expansion program, Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff stated this week that he will attend a meeting of school administrators in Oakland November 12 with U. S. Senator William F. Knowland and Congressmen George P. Miller and John Allen.

The meeting, arranged by the California School Administrators Association, will be held at 10 a.m. that day at the Oakland Board of Education headquarters, in the school administration office.

Purpose of the session, Sheaff was notified in a letter from the administrators' association, is to discuss the critical materials situation with the senator and congressmen.

"THE OBJECT," Sheaff explained, "is to come prepared to tell these three men what materials are needed for school buildings anticipated."

Sheaff said he had written to Jack Buchter, local school board architect, asking him to obtain general information on the problem as it exists here.

The superintendent said that Monday night's monthly Orinda School Board meeting will probably clarify the picture. The school board meeting is set for 8 p.m. at Orinda Grammar School.

"THE SCHOOL BOARD has asked for a review by Buchter of the detailed plans for the projected Sleepy Hollow school, planned to be built at the west end of Washington Lane," he said.

"Buchter is trying to obtain specific information from Robert Grady, the electrical and plumbing engineer for the Sleepy Hollow project, and Robert Dewell, the structural engineer.

"With such information on hand Monday night, we will better understand where we stand in relation to the steel shortage, and I will be better prepared to participate in the November 12 meeting."

Sheaff stressed that, although efforts are being made to use a minimum amount of steel in the Sleepy Hollow structure, reinforcing steel is essential for foundations and footings.

"ABILITY TO OBTAIN reinforcing steel would put a serious crimp in the district's efforts to keep up with ever-increasing student enrollment, the superintendent pointed out.

"Steel is allotted to each job, on a quarterly basis," he said, "so it's difficult to say right now just how serious our situation is.

"But there's no question that we must have reinforcing steel. And it seems ridiculous for individual superintendents to have to make special trips to Washington to obtain okay for steel for specific projects."

35-Mile Zones For Overhill Rd., Glorietta Blvd.

Effective 30 days after passage, 35-miles-per-hour speed zones were established by the Board of Supervisors Monday for Glorietta Boulevard and Overhill Road.

The ordinance adopted by the board fixed maximum speed of vehicles at 35 miles an hour on: 1—Glorietta Boulevard from its intersection with Moraga Highway to its intersection with Acalanes Road.

2—Overhill Road from its intersection with Glorietta Boulevard to its intersection with Moraga Highway.

The ordinance had been prepared by the district attorney's office in response to the board's directive.

Nursery School Parents' Potluck Wednesday Night

Wednesday night will be the night for mothers and dads of Orinda Nursery School pupils to get better acquainted with one another.

The school's potluck supper will be served that evening at Orinda Community Church Social Hall at 7 (instead of 6:30, as previously planned). Parents are asked to come dressed in jeans if possible.

Prior to the potluck supper, there will be a cocktail party at the Cecil Cutting home, 7 Valley View, from 6 to 7. Those wishing to attend the cocktail party are asked to call Mrs. Cutting in advance.

Pandora Readies For Charity Ball

Next event on the calendar for Pandora Chapter members is the all-chapter Charity Ball to be given at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco on Saturday night, November 17.

The ball, featuring Ernie Hecker's orchestra, will be attended by members from chapters in Marin County, San Francisco, down the Peninsula, the East Bay and as far south as San Jose.

Several no-host parties are being planned by Pandora members. One of the larger groups will gather at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth St. Clair on La Campana.

Mrs. Alex Poulsen heads the ticket committee. Among those who have already made their reservations are Messrs. and Mesdames Clarence Betz, Rudy Rasmussen, John W. Cooper, Lloyd L. Root Jr., John Barchfield and G. M. Heinrich.

Orinda Building OK's for 1 Week Total $23,767

Building permits issued for Orinda are for a building ending October 12 totaling $23,767, with one residence and one garage listed and the remaining three permits for miscellaneous building.

Owner M. Tanovitz of Rodeo was issued an okay for the residence and garage project for Lot 20, Bobo Road, Sunset Harbor. R. Bader was named builder, with cost estimated at $16,860.

Owner and Builder A. F. Thor of Orinda was granted a residence addition permit for No. 12 Park Lane Drive, Moraga Meadows No. 1, with cost estimated at $18,185. A similar permit was issued Owner E. L. Bruzzone for Lot 125 and 126, No. 24 Orchard Road, Moraga Estates. Builder was listed as Carlson and Maier of Oakland and estimated cost was $4,992.

Remaining permit was for a sign at Worden Travel Service, 9 Moraga Highway, cost estimated at $100. Electric Products Corporation was listed as builder.

Cocktail Party 11th Theme—'Keep That School Bus Rolling'

While they don't give citations to such prosaic things as school buses, if they did, there is one deserving a high award — the bus which leaves Orinda each school day transporting children of the Santa Maria parish to the parochial schools of St. Leo's and Marygrove in Piedmont.

"Keep the School Bus Rolling" will be the theme of the cocktail party sponsored by the Mothers and Dads Club. Time: November 11, 2 to 6 p.m. Place: Home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Gillivan, 160 El Camino Don Miguel.

Committee members are: General chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. William Straus; tickets, Mrs. Robert Boyle; refreshments, Mrs. Richard Waters; entertainment, Mrs. George Kleim; house committee, Mrs. Lew Schwab.

For reservations call Mrs. Robert Boyle, Orinda 2316, or Mrs. Francis Wyatt, Orinda 8504.

Greyhound Revises Peak-Hour Schedule On Suggestion of Commuter Assn.

Starting Wednesday, Greyhound commuter buses serving this area will operate on readjusted schedules during peak hours as the result of suggestions by the Contra Costa Commuters Association, it was reported this week by the association.

The service committee of the association announced that it met with the Department of Transportation of the California Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco Monday, when detailed figures were presented, supporting widespread complaints of congested commuter traffic.

They told of long lines of passengers, both morning and evening, being unable to secure even standing room on the crowded buses.

THE ASSOCIATION PROPOSED that Greyhound be approached with a plan of readjusting schedules to provide more buses during the peak loading period from 6:30 to 8 a.m. by moving back the later morning runs which are often only partially filled.

Further suggestions were that the early morning Danville bus, which connects with the main line at Walnut Creek, be moved ahead five minutes earlier to conform to the general load pattern of the new schedules.

On the evening run, it was proposed that the so-called "clean-up" bus now leaving Essex and Folsom Streets in San Francisco at 5:45 p.m. be scheduled five minutes earlier.

The Commuters Association later reported that Greyhound has agreed to place these changes into effect commencing November 7. Effect of the revised schedules will be observed for two weeks, and if present congestion still persists, further efforts will be made to secure additional bus facilities during peak periods.

THE COMMUTERS ASSOCIATION elected a new set of officers at a special meeting of the Board of Directors after the annual meeting early in October.

Arthur Bowman of Orinda is the new president, Virgil Sloane of Walnut Creek is vice-president, John McKirahan of Lafayette was reelected secretary and Fred Follard of Orinda is treasurer.

Membership in the association is open to anyone who travels regularly between Contra Costa County and the Bay Area, including those who ride in private car pools.

An open meeting will be held Tuesday, November 13, at 8 p.m. at Acalanes High School.

Flash!—Santa's Coming to Lafayette, In Style; He'll Be at Fairyland House

By MILDRED LLOYD
Santa Claus is coming to town! Right down Fairyland Lane, he'll sail, and quickly set up his headquarters in Fairyland House, and there he'll remain until Christmas, resplendent in his surroundings of gay decorations, carols, dolls, tinsel and children — Lafayette children.

Beginning December 8, Fairyland Lane (Mt. Diablo Boulevard to you who must be practical) will be gay indeed.

Overhead will hang traditional holiday bells and wreaths of shining, colorful foil, while attached to poles along the street will be life-size characters, cleverly designed by students at the College of Arts and Crafts and taken right out of your favorite story-book. Truly the holiday spirit will reign over Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE'S CHRISTMAS Carnival has been planned again this year under direction of the Chamber of Commerce. The committee in charge of the plans and arrangements for this affair is headed by Henry Thornbro, chairman, assisted by Orville Sutton and Gaston Mariotte, co chairmen.

This trio and their subcommittees have been working for several weeks to make this third annual Christmas Carnival the best ever.

PLANS HAVE BEEN MADE to invite Santa to come to Lafayette from his home at the North Pole so that he may talk with the chil-

This year Santa will completely fill his red velvet suit every day and will stroke his white beard with full confidence as he listens to the requests of Lafayette's kiddies, for he will be a Santa with years of experience at this job.

According to the committee, each Lafayette merchant and business-man will be contacted in the very near future for financial assistance in the affair. Each merchant will be informed fully as to all the plans that have been made for the gala holiday celebration.

AS HAS BEEN the custom in the past, prizes, donated by local merchants, will be awarded just before Christmas. The list of prizes is long and impressive, the first prize being a large, first-class, console television set.

SANTA'S HEADQUARTERS, Fairyland House, will be located in the old post office building.

Here Saint Nicholas will hold sway each day from 11 until 5, surrounded by an exhibit of dolls in action, prizes and gay decorations. Carol music will fill the air each evening.

The Nativity Scene designed two years ago for Lafayette by an artist of note, will be set up in special surroundings at the Lafayette Welcome Sign, and the figures of the Three Wise Men will again be seen on the hillside nearby.

Yes, Santa IS coming to Lafayette, and he's coming in style!

Quarry Hearing Set for Nov. 26

Application of Jerry G. Farrar of 212 Tunnel Road for permission to operate a rock quarry near Oak Springs Road 3 will be heard by the Board of Supervisors November 26 at 10 a.m.

Date and time of the hearing were set by the board last week.

Farrar's application is for operation of a quarry in an area of over 200 acres in the property of Maria Domingo, west of Brookside Road, which is on the other side (the east side) of Moraga Highway.

Nearest subdivision is Oak Springs Unit 3, north of the proposed quarry site. Kaiser property and El Bay Municipal Utility District land are near the proposed site.

Contractor on the Sleepy Hollow (Local Improvement District 22) and Lake Cascade (L.I.D. 23) jobs for the Sanitary District is the Charles Burch Company of El Monte.

Hauerken, an attorney in the San Francisco law firm of Hauerken, St. Clair and Viadro, requested that five weeks ago his wife, in a car, "was mired on Vida Descondada and had to be towed out." Despite complaint by him, nothing was done to improve the condition of the road, he said.

That in the recent heavy rains, Hauerken became mired in the road.

That marked the end of his patience in the matter, he explained to the SUN, and he sent his registered letter.

ACTING MANAGER-ENGINEER Victor Sauer of the Sanitary District admitted that Hauerken had good reason to complain, and that roads in such condition were dangerous. But he added that the very day the letter was received, steps were being taken to rectify the situation.

Gravel has been placed over the trenches on La Noria and Vida Descondada, Sauer said, and Hauerken agreed this week that this had been done.

"AN ACTIVE PAVING program has been pursued the rest of this week and all next week," he stated. "Paving of Camino Sobrante from Miner Road easterly for half or three-quarters of a mile and of La Noria and La Espiral where these roads feed into Camino Sobrante is next."

"Higher up, La Espiral has been paved."

SAUER LISTED a few additional factors besides weather which have delayed work:

"Some of the pipe was installed in areas which were really shaded, but which don't dry up quickly after rain."

"The Upton Quarry, where the rock and gravel have been obtained, has been shut down recently because the rock-crusher was broken — so we haven't been able to get rock the last couple of days."

"We couldn't get pipes for some of the creek-crossings, because of the steel shortage." He admitted, "The paving is not as far along as it could be; it lags behind the other work."

Despite all these handicaps, two truckloads of peat gravel had been strewn over streets by midweek, Sauer reported.

Hauerken declared that the main responsibility was the contractor's.

"FOR TWO weeks, my car has been stuck in a half-mile from the house and walk through the mud and water," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Hauerken were to fly yesterday morning to New Orleans, from where they are sailing tonight on a month-long Caribbean cruise.

"That hasn't any connection with the road situation here," he laughingly remarked. "I've had a heavy cold, and I'm getting away for a good rest."

Here's Workshop Schedule of Week

Workshop meetings for mothers and teachers for the Orinda and Glorietta Schools have been scheduled for next week, according to Mrs. Robert Bigler, president of the Orinda Mothers Club.

On Tuesday the Orinda fourth grade class taught by Mrs. Martine will meet at the home of Mrs. Volney Howard, room mother, at 3 p.m. at La Cuesta. Mrs. Bigler and Joseph Sheaff, school superintendent, will attend all workshop meetings to discuss school problems with the mothers.

On Wednesday Mrs. Parker's second grade Glorietta class will have its workshop meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Niosi, room mother, at 2:30 p.m. at 11 Moraga Court.

The Orinda kindergarten class taught by Miss Miller will meet Thursday at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. John Cooper, 40 El Toyonal. Mrs. Cooper is room mother for the class.

At 2:30 p.m. Thursday the Orinda third grade class taught by Mrs. Dodd will have its workshop meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Gibbs, 134 Sleepy Hollow Lane.

Next Friday, November 9, mothers of the Orinda fifth grade class taught by Mrs. Hollis will meet with Mrs. Bigler and Sheaff at the home of Mrs. John McFarland, room mother, at 3 p.m. at 59 Via Hermosa.

Sewers, Ditches, Toil and Trouble—Hauerken 'Explodes', Gravel Is Spread

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

Gravel had been strewn on troublesome, watery sewer ditches in Sleepy Hollow and Lake Cascade areas this week—but still echoing was the explosion of wrath from George H. Hauerken of 15 Vida Descondada.

Referred to the district attorney's office Monday by the County Board of Supervisors was a letter from Hauerken in which he sharply called attention to a "dangerous and defective condition" on La Noria and Vida Descondada and in which he warned the county:

"If I should hear of anyone hurt or killed as the result of going over one of these highways, I shall go out of my way to inform the injured person or the next of kin of the deceased that I have served notice to the county of its responsibility for maintaining county property."

Hauerken described the roads as "a constant menace to the lives and limbs of those who attempt to traverse them," and added:

"IF THE SEWER contractor has the ability to dig dirt out of the highway, he can also put it back."

The same letter was sent to the Central Contra Costa County Sanitary District and to Road Commissioner Joseph Barkley.

Contractor on the Sleepy Hollow (Local Improvement District 22) and Lake Cascade (L.I.D. 23) jobs for the Sanitary District is the Charles Burch Company of El Monte.

All Aboard That $1.75-Info Meet On Monday Night

Last call for the "Information Special" meeting of the Orinda School Board, to be held at 8 p.m. Monday at Orinda Grammar School!

"And that's no smart-aleek quip, either," remarked Schools Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff. "A report will definitely be given on the need for a $1.75 school district tax limit, regarding which the voters will cast their ballots December 4."

"We urge as many people as possible to attend the Monday night meeting, so they can hear the reasons for the proposal for a seven-year period of a $1.75 tax limit, beginning July 1, 1952."

Former Portion Of Oakwood Rd. Now Orchard Rd.

It's all Orchard Road now, so may be some of the mail-delivery problems of the post office have been simplified.

At the request of Postmaster Laura Mallory, the Board of Supervisors last week changed the name of the westerly branch of Oakwood Road to Orchard Road. That portion of Oakwood Road extended from Orchard Road to Moraga Highway.

The postmaster had asked the change to eliminate confusion.

Pack 32 Keeps Right on Growing

The biggest news in Cub Pack 32 is still size!

Twenty new cubs were introduced at last month's meeting, and it has been necessary to form three additional dens to accommodate them.

Tonight the list grows. New names are Jimmy Gibbs, Albert Gregory, Roger Hoyer, Dick Stark, Randy Thaman, John Thirsten and Wayne Webster.

There are also three transfers: Gregory Gaylord, Byron Nelson and Burley Willes.

Welcome, boys, the more the merrier!

Mrs. Dan Lucas of 6 North Lane, Orinda 5396, has string for the cubs to use to tie their bundles of newspapers. This is the cub community project! Get your neighbors' newspapers, sort them and tie them in neat stacks and deliver them to the fire house. The little children taking therapy treatments get the money to help pay the doctor bills.

Dens 2, 4 and 6 visited Chabot Observatory recently. Den 3 made candle holders of chipped rock, Indian fashion. Den 4 did textile painting on dish towels. Den 5 made Indian canoes.

The pack meets tonight at 7:30 promptly, at the Orinda Grammar School.

Skits, Fun for 2 'Barn Dances'

Special entertainment during the intermissions will enliven the barn dances to be given by the Orinda Mothers Club at the Orinda School auditorium for the Orinda School November 13, for the Glorietta School November 14, from 9 p.m. to midnight.

It is all a great secret at this date, but there will be a master of ceremonies with skits and fun on both dance nights. The orchestra, all five pieces, is full of fine rhythm for all kinds of dancing, including a few square dances.

There will be doughnuts and cider for those wanting refreshments. The auditorium will resemble a barn, with all types of farm decorations, and all the fun of meeting other parents for $1 admission per couple.

Sixth, fifth, and fourth grade room mothers are chairmen of the dance. Include Mesdames Frank Wright, Randall Cook, John McFarland, Harold Cannon, George Matney, Volney Howard, A. D. Henry and Harry Minor.

Mrs. Wright is general chairman for the dance.

Jelton's Yacht Buffeted by Two 'Storms' of Words

Buffeted by two verbal storms blowing from opposite directions is the yacht "Minerva" of Vad Jelton of Lower Happy Valley Road.

Four young men who served as crew members on the "Minerva" when it participated in the Los Angeles-to-Honolulu yacht race last July have brought suit against Jelton for the price of steamer passage home — $184 each.

Through Attorney Russell Federspiel of Oakland, who filed the suit October 16 in the civil division of Oakland Municipal Court, they charge that Jelton had agreed to pay their round trip expenses between Oakland and Honolulu; that on the start of the return voyage the craft became unseaworthy and put back to Honolulu for repairs; that Jelton refused to make emergency repairs, shipping the yacht home by steamer, and that Jelton declined to pay their steamer passage home.

BUT ATTORNEY Herman Cook of the Oakland law firm of Hardin, Fletcher, Cook and Hayes, representing Jelton, yesterday declared that the suit is "totally unfounded," that there is no basis in fact for the action and that the four men "voluntarily walked out on the trip."

Cook also said he will file a counter-action for the cost of transporting the boat back to Oakland by freighter. This counter-action, he said, would probably be in Superior Court because the cost "was in excess of $4000." He emphatically denied that the yacht was unseaworthy.

The four crew members who seek payment of steamer passage are James C. Jessie, 18, of Oakland, suing through his father, James W. Jessie; Hart Smith of Alameda, James Stratton of Berkeley and Albert Boothby of Alameda.

The "Minerva" took off from Los Angeles July 4, with 25 other yachts. It made the trip to Honolulu in 13 days, eight hours and 18 minutes.

IT STARTED HOMEWARD July 31, Federspiel said that it "was leaking and took on a lot of water; the refrigeration system went bad and a lot of food spoiled, the sail track became loose and the entire electrical system failed."

"The whole crew took a vote and decided to put back to port," Federspiel said. "After two days out, the boat turned back for Honolulu."

So, however, claims that all the defects were minor and that Jelton ordered repairs made as requested by the crew. Jelton and his family had originally planned to fly back, he said, and when the crew members walked off he had to have the yacht transported home by freighter.

"Generically, there was nothing wrong with the boat," Cook declared. He added that Boothby "was supposed to be in command."

Canyon-Moraga Cubs Win Awards

First Fall meeting of Canyon-Moraga Cub Pack 57, held at Canyon School last Friday evening, was attended by all cubs and leaders and most of the parents. Cubmaster John Shally presented the awards.

The Webelos award went to Bobby Ross, Stanley Fredrickson and Denny Shally. These three boys have already joined Canyon Scout Troop 212. The Lion award was given to Chuck Lance, Timmy Crawford and Marcy Endie. The Bear award was received by Roger Franklin and Claude Seeds, while Donny Fosket, Gary Miller and Mickey Kezar were the recipients of the Wolf award.

Additional arrow points were given to Ronnie Scholin and Jimmy Lalley.

Three new members, Billy Chessum, Johnnie Thune and Gary Koch, were each presented with a Bobcat pin.

Announcement that the cubs, accompanied by their leaders, John Shally, Fred Leathole and Paul Foster, would "take in" the California-Oregon State game at the Berkeley stadium the next day was greeted by an uproar. The boys will also be taken to see the California-Oregon game at Berkeley November 17.

Refreshments were served by Moraga den mothers, Mrs. Bill Ross and Mrs. Bessie Hammond.

2 Canyon Cousins: Jackie Cooper, Julie Ann DeTar

Two new little Canyon cousins were born within four days of each other.

Pat and Mrs. Don Cooper became the proud parents of their first child, a baby boy, Jackie Allen Cooper, on October 21 at Jackson Lake Hospital in Oakland. Mrs. Cooper is the former Barbara DeTar of Lafayette.

On October 25 Mrs. Cooper's brother, Wayne DeTar and his wife (the former Janet Pine) presented a new sister to their 13-month-old son, Larry. Baby Julie Ann DeTar arrived at Providence Hospital in Oakland.

The DeTar children have both grandparents and great-grandparents living in Canyon: Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pine, Janet's parents, and Mrs. Pine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Meacham.

Little Jackie's Canyon grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Al Cooper. The other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeTar, reside in Lafayette.

SENATOR WILLIAM F. KNOWLAND, right, discusses plans for the Contra Costa County Republican "Preparedness Dinner," to be held Monday evening, November 5, at the Diablo Country Club, with William M. Fleeger, Orinda, Chairman of the United Republican Finance Committee. Senator Knowland will make his first major address since adjournment of Congress, and is expected to stress the nation's foreign policy and its impact on domestic economy. From 300 to 400 residents of the county are expected to attend the affair, planned as a major fund-raising effort to finance Republican activities in 1952.

Joyce Ahlstrom Honored at Shower

Joyce Ahlstrom was feted at a recent bridal shower given in her honor by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Adrian Adams and Mrs. El Don Adams.

Friends who were present were Mesdames Karl Adams, Lyle Jacobson, E. A. Redier, Thomas Chavlas, Frank Chadwick, Bud Lindquist, Margaret Slighe, C. E. Zeidler and Norman Roth, Jr.

After a game of buncie, in which the prospective bride won the "booby" prize, and the opening of many beautiful gifts for the bride, delicious refreshments were served. Joyce is to be the bride of William Osborne. The wedding is scheduled to take place the end of this month in Parowan, Utah, the bride's home town.

W. A. Davis' in East

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis left their Orinda home September 25 for a two-month trip east combining banking business, visiting relatives and old friends, and sight-seeing.

Their letters to Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brushers, who are occupying the Davis home during their absence, tell of interesting trips along the East Coast sight-seeing in Washington, D. C., and that their next objective was Florida.

Canyon Women's Club Dance Set For November 10

Because the present "hard times" have depleted the fund reserved by the Canyon Women's Club for school improvements, the dance to be given to replenish their treasury will be in the "Hard Times" motif.

The dance will be held November 10 at Canyon's Redwood Inn, from 9 to 1, to the music of "Happy Hank and his Hobos."

Posters advertising the dance were made entirely by the upper grade pupils of Canyon School, under the direction of Principal George Masker. Cut-out block letters on the posters are offset by a cut-out calico-and-jean couple.

The dance committee includes Mesdames John Mayberry, Allen Crawford, Clyde Engle and George Chessum.

Goblins, Ghosts At Canyon School

On Wednesday afternoon Canyon school was visited by goblins and ghosts, tramps and dancing girls, rajahs and wild men and many other fabulous creatures.

Each room of the little two-room redwood school house held its own party, both rooms being decorated in the Halloween motif, with decorations made by the pupils.

The upper grade children made their own masks. Candy and cider was furnished by the Women's Club, and the mothers, who received special invitations to the parties, brought cookies and cakes.

Weimar Benefit Dessert Bridge Next Thursday

Plans for the dessert bridge at the R. Devins home on Jonas Hill Road in Moraga Thursday are completed, and the Women for Weimar are looking forward to a very successful party.

Attractive table decorations, which will serve as prizes, have been made by Mrs. J. Parker and Mrs. George Matey.

The dessert bridge is for the benefit of the California fund for the children of Weimar. For the past two years this group of women, with the assistance of the Sun and the Sugar Plum House in Lafayette, have sent individual gifts and filled stockings to the children of Weimar who are fighting tuberculosis.

The Brownie troops of Orinda sew the stockings, which are then filled with gifts by Mrs. Matey.

This year there are 80 children who will need remembering. Their ages range from three months to six years.

Among those who have purchased tables for the dessert bridge are Mesdames I. Zamien, W. D. Court, right, J. Downs, W. Littlejohn, R. Harrison, R. Metzger and E. Elerding.

Numerous prizes have been donated, and Bradley's Market has offered a turkey to help swell the funds.

Kappa Tau Chapter Goes Keatly Gobling

Kappa Tau Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi departed from its usual dignified behavior to dance and frolic with the ghosts and goblins last Saturday evening.

Traditional Halloween decorations were in evidence at the Byrons' home on Darlene Avenue, Concord, where the party was held. Costumed guests entered and departed through the garage window.

Social chairman Jean Kuhn shared arrangement details with Mavis Sanchez and Lorene Byron.

Those joining in the fun were Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Hamlin, Gene Pleau and Johnny Sanchez, and Earl Kuchta of Walnut Creek; Opal Redmond and Messrs. and Mesdames Jake Kuhn, Norman Davidson and Zeph Ballmer of Lafayette; Jesse Stanton of Oakland and Messrs. and Mesdames Pat Byron, Carmon Curtis and Bill Earl of Concord.

Car Thieves Again Active

Car thieves again seem to be active in this area.

Leaving the Orinda Theater about 10:30 last Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Day of 242 Orchard Road, Orinda, discovered their car missing from its parking place. The car, a light green 1950 Mercury, license No. 4C5222, had been parked in front of the Wadsworth Real Estate office on Moraga Highway, just across from the theater.

The sheriff's office was immediately notified, but at the latest report the car had not been recovered. Irreplaceable, Day stated, is the set of carpentry tools which were locked in the trunk of the stolen car. The Days are former Canyon residents.

In Canyon last Friday, Mrs. Jack Lalley reported that a full tank of gasoline had been siphoned from the Lalley car, which had been parked near the Canyon School. The theft was discovered when Mrs. Lalley tried to start the car for a birthday trip to town with her young son.

Later, when the tank had been refilled and the car still would not start, it was found that the thieves had put dirt into the gas tank.

Charley Moore, who also parks his car near the school, stated that his car had been broken into, but that nothing had been stolen.

'Orinda Day' 9th at Air Force Hole-in-1

Next Friday, November 9, is Orinda and East Bay Day in the first annual Air Force Association's benefit Hole-in-one Derby, scheduled for November 2 through 11 at the Colma Golf Driving Range on Junipero Serra Boulevard in Colma.

Daily competition is between 2 and 10:30 p.m. and is open to all. The hole is 120 yards. Golf balls and clubs will be furnished or you can use your own.

Alben Barkley at Israel Bond Rally Next Thursday Night

Vice-President Alben W. Barkley will be guest of honor at an Israel Bond Celebration Thursday at the War Memorial Opera House, San Francisco.

Benjamin Swig, Northern California chairman for the $500,000,000 Israel Bond campaign, said that all Northern California communities will have special sections reserved for them at the Opera House, birthplace of the United Nations which helped create the new three-year-old State of Israel.

Despite Rainstorm, Nearly 100 Attend Orioles' 1st Anniversary Celebration

The Orinda Orioles, auxiliary of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, celebrated its first anniversary October 24 with a tea, program and associate membership drive, in the Social Hall of the Orinda Community Church.

In spite of the wild rains about 2 p.m., almost 100 women gathered there. Beautiful arrangements of chrysanthemums, zinnias, grape leaves and autumn-colored sprays of maple adorned the tea table, the window sills, the piano and numerous small tables in the entrance and in the hall, the work of Mesdames Ed Nelson, Roger Dexter and G. Chester Brown.

Members and guests were greeted at the door by the President Mrs. Carl Wellington. Introduced and Vice-President Mrs. William B. Arends.

Assisting them in introducing guests were Mesdames B. B. Seim, Marvin Bonds and Dan Peacock.

Program chairman was Mrs. Frank Hight, who welcomed all and introduced the soloist, Mrs. Ralph Byron. Mrs. Byron sang three numbers, "Let My Song Fill Your Heart," by Charles, "My Laddie," by Thayer, and "Philosophy," by D. Emmell. She was accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Dod of Berkeley.

MRS. HIGHT then introduced the speaker, Executive Secretary Carl Ross of the Therapy Center. He told of the beginnings of the Center in 1948, when Mary Doyle was the therapist, and its growth to its present strength with its 15 directors, its Medical Advisory Board and its capacity to treat 20 patients a day.

Ross called on Mrs. Ida Zamloch, co-founder with Mrs. Hight of the Orinda auxiliaries, to add a few words about the history of the group. He then went on to say that patients were treated at the Center for polio, cerebral palsy or other kinds of disease where therapy would help in rehabilitation.

A recent source of help and income, he said, was industrial accident cases from the county's shipping ports at Port Chicago and Pittsburg, and at their factories; insurance companies have found rehabilitation quicker and less expensive when therapy treatments are given in time.

ROSS REMINDED HIS audience that the Center was run without profit. He said they plan to have a class to train teachers in therapy work and parents in the home care of handicapped children. At present they have a visiting occupational therapy teacher who brings craft materials and instructions to home patients.

There is need for more volunteers to drive patients to or from the Center, and for more financial support through memberships, he stressed.

Mrs. Smith then announced Open House at the Center on the 28th, and invited all to have tea. She and Mrs. Arends poured. Helped them serve sandwiches and petit fours were Mesdames C. A. Winrod, W. J. Gilman, Walter Friberg, A. A. Schmidt and J. E. Wason.

A NUMBER OF NEW associate members joined the group.

Next meeting will be on November 14 at the home of Mrs. Murray Groves, 25 Camino Encinas. Besides the regular social and business meeting, the nominating committee will submit names for the new officers.

LEGAL NOTICE

BEFORE THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Proposed Abandonment of a Portion of a Certain County Road (way in the Vicinity of EL SOBORANTE, County of Contra Costa, State of California)

RESOLUTION WHEREAS, the hereinafter described portion of a county road in the vicinity of El Soborante, County of Contra Costa, State of California, as hereinafter described, has for a period of five (5) years immediately preceding passage of this resolution been impassable to vehicular traffic and has been a public nuisance and an unnecessary public road and was not expressly dedicated to public use by the owners thereof originally.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa that proceedings be commenced for the purpose of abandoning a portion of the hereinafter described public road and that a hearing on the question of said abandonment be held on Monday, the 19th day of November, 1951, at 10:00 o'clock a.m. in the Chamber of the Board of Supervisors, Hall of Records, Martinez, California, to hear any and all objections to said abandonment. The portion of public road to be abandoned is described as follows:

That parcel of land in the County of Contra Costa, State of California, described as follows: Portion of the Rancho El Soborante, described as follows:

All that portion of the 50 feet in width strip of land described in the deed from S. E. Alden to the County of Contra Costa, undated and recorded July 24, 1890 in Volume 38 of Deeds, at page 306, lying within the parcel of land described as follows:

Beginning on the west line of a County Road, known as Miner Road, at the southwest line of the parcel of land described in the deed from John P. Beckett, et ux, to William F. Beckett, et ux, dated October 25, 1949 and recorded November 9, 1949 in Volume 1459 of Official Records, at page 576; thence from said point of beginning southerly along said west line to the intersection of said west line with the north line of a County Road known as Lombardy Lane; thence westerly and northerly along the north and east lines of said Lombardy Lane to the southwest corner of said Beckett parcel (1459 OR 576); thence southeasterly along said southwest line to the point of beginning.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT copies of this resolution be conspicuously placed not less than five hundred feet (500') apart but in at least three (3) places upon and along said portion of road proposed to be abandoned; and copy published in the "Orinda Sun," a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Contra Costa, for two successive weeks prior to the hearing.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa, State of California, at a meeting held on the 15th day of October, 1951, by the following vote: AYES: Supervisors — I. T. Goyak, H. L. Cummings, Ray S. Taylor, W. G. Buchanan, J. Frederickson. NOES: Supervisors — None. I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing resolution was duly and regularly introduced, passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa at a meeting of said Board held on the 15th day of October, 1951.

Services Being Conducted in New Chapel of Church

Worshiping now each Sunday in their new chapel, members of the Orinda Community Church congregation feel secure in inviting their friends and neighbors to share with them the morning services held at 11 o'clock.

This Sunday the choir will again contribute a sacred anthem to the worship, under the leadership of Mrs. Margaret Popovich as chorister and Daniel Popovich as organist. Assisted by C. R. Fowler, Rev. Fred R. Morrow is conducting the service, speaking on "Is Christianity Optimistic?"

Chapel services for younger members of the congregation are held at 9:30 and 10 a.m. and at 7 p.m. with Mrs. Mae Morrow, Mrs. E. J. Turk and Catherine Monroe as organists. Classes alternate with the morning services for junior and senior groups, and high school young people add discussions and social recreation to their evening sessions. Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. Turk are their counselors and sponsors.

A church-time nursery and special class for juniors are conducted at 11 o'clock for the benefit of parents desiring to attend worship.

Chi Lambda Group To Meet Monday

The role of woman as a successful marriage partner and mother is the topic for the meeting of Chi Lambda Chapter of Delphian Society Monday at Orinda Community Church, under the leadership of Mrs. Joseph A. DeMaria.

Section heads participating in the discussion will be Mrs. Ida Zamloch, who will speak on "Psychological Growth;" Mrs. Jess E. Rauch, "Stable Marriage;" Mrs. Randall Cook, "Past and Present;" Mrs. M. Pierce Milton, "Motherhood;" Mrs. Karl E. Fritch, "Beyond Motherhood."

Appointment of Mrs. Alan Waddell as treasurer was approved at the last meeting. Mrs. Jess Rauch was accepted as a new member.

After Five Years, Cunninghams Settle At Home in Orinda

Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Cunningham have "settled down" in Orinda after an interesting five years spent in Guatemala, Costa Rica, Venezuela and finally in New York.

With their three youngsters, five-year old Anne, four-year-old Bill, and Martha, nine months old, they are now "at home" at 8 Overhill Road.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham are graduates of the University of California, and Mrs. Cunningham, the former Elizabeth Stewart, grew up in Berkeley. She is the daughter of Brigadier General and Mrs. Floyd W. Stewart of Lafayette.

About Our Happy Country Folk

By EDITH BOLMAN

ANY ASTONISHED ORINDAN standing around in her blue jeans and muddy boots last week gazing at the hatted, gloved and furred ladies strolling into Mrs. Milton Selby's home for afternoon tea need not take pause for mental inventory—everything was hunky-dory and strictly on the level.

Mrs. Selby's aunt, Mrs. Edith Eversole, was visiting here from Los Angeles, for, among other things, the celebration of her 79th birthday, so Mrs. S. invited some of her neighbors and their mothers for an afternoon frolic with tea and cake.

The following, with as many of their mothers as were available, attended: Mesdames Roger Stark, Norris Wiggins, Wallace Breuner, Walter Boyesen, Ted Beckett, Edgar Stewart, Nelson Stewart, Joseph Ripley and Ambrose Macdonald.

MORE ABOUT OUR good-deed girls Mrs. A. W. Bowron and Mrs. Jack Janes go to Oak Knoll Naval and Marine Hospital every Thursday to render Gray Lady aid to injured veterans.

A rewarding job, and evidently the need is great. The Gray Lady course is available — think it over.

Mrs. Bowron regaled us with stories of daughter Gwen, who has finished her training at Cheyenne and is now an Air Lines stewardess living in Chicago, sharing an apartment with two other fly girls. From what we hear tell it's cheaper if you can live at home with the family — and/or — California is pretty wonderful after all, at least as far as rentals are concerned.

Home from a weekend at Lake Tahoe — the Richard Breuners, Heinie Gentrys, Leon Woolseys and Harold Martins. Dick Symes is home, too, after graduating from the University of Colorado.

WILLIAM SPARLING, on behalf of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, and Dudley Frost, on behalf of the Port of Oakland Commission, had an interesting trip recently.

After being entertained in Alameda by Admiral B. J. Rodgers and Admiral Murray Royer, they flew on the Navy flying ship Mars to Honolulu, where they were met by Admiral Radford.

After several days in Honolulu and thereabouts, they came home on the Pine Island, a sea plane tender.

MORE ABOUT FLY GIRLS. Joan Hedemark has finished her air stewardess training at Cheyenne and is once more in the Bay Area.

She and six other girls, who attend the course with her, are stationed at San Mateo and are looking for a furnished house to rent that will hold all of them and that, so far, is the most difficult phase of being an air stewardess.

She had a brief weekend at home with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hedemark.

Dan Sheldon is off for a two weeks' journey to the East Coast covering Washington, D. C., New umn with another story about the good deed girls — this one tickled us because it's so typical of Orinda.

Mrs. Frederick Mulvany has taken upon herself the responsibility of assembling a certain quota of delicious home-made cookies for the boys at Oak Knoll Hospital who enjoy an afternoon snack with coffee. Every Tuesday Mrs. M. trots around to the kitchen doors of sundry public-spirited friends, gathers up the cookies, drives them to the Crossroads and leaves them at one of the gas stations.

Then, just because the gas station attendants are also public-spirited (or ate too much lunch) the cookies remain intact and are picked up by Mrs. J. E. Culver, who totes them to the Red Cross station in Berkeley, where, once more, they change hands and are delivered to the hospital.

Our considered opinion is that while the Red Cross is involved in Operation Cookie it might be fun to have a few more — think that one over, too, if you are a good cookie maker, and call Mrs. Mulvany at Orinda 8627. She will be delighted to collect your contribution. That is all.

International Theme at Girl Scout Tea

Orinda Girl Scout Troop 75, led by Mrs. Sig Groennings, leader, gave their Juliette Low Tea at the Scout House October 25. Members of Troop 58 were their guests.

As this month's theme is "International Understanding," each girl of Troop 75 gave a talk on a foreign country and brought dolls, clothing, handicraft or pictures representative of that nation.

The lighted candle, symbolic of world friendship and peace, was passed to each girl as she spoke.

Girls from both troops were presented World Pins to wear on their uniforms.

The refreshment table was decorated with miniature flags of all nations, and centered by our American flag and autumn fruit. Punch and home-made cookies made by the girls of Troop 75 were served. The cookies were served on paper napkins which had been decorated with the Scout Trefoil by Troop 75 girls.

The afternoon concluded with songs led by Mrs. Alice Slusser, leader of Troop 58.

Santa Maria Women Meet Tuesday Night

The monthly meeting of the Santa Maria Catholic Women's Club will be held at St. Mary's College Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker will be the Rev. William P. Reilly, Father Reilly is Diocesan director of the schools for the deaf and hard of hearing. One of these schools, located in Oakland, is the former home of Governor Warren.

All members and their friends are urged to attend this meeting. Devotions to Our Lady of Fatima are offered each Saturday at the 8 o'clock mass.

Funeral Rites Held For Robert G. Aitken

Private funeral services for Robert G. Aitken, father of Mrs. W. E. A. Laughtrey of Orinda, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Chapel of the Chimes in Piedmont.

Aitken, a member of the First Congregational Church of Berkeley, the City Commons Club of Berkeley and the University Club of the University of California, died Tuesday in Berkeley at the age of 86. He is also survived by three sons and a brother. He was a native of Jackson, Amador County.

Bishop Miller To Open Series On Latin America

A special program of four Family Sunday nights on "Latin America" will start Sunday evening at Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

Each Sunday evening of this month a different phase of Latin American life will be discussed. The first discussion will be by Bishop George A. Miller, who will tell of the history of Latin America and will describe how that fits into world history.

Having spent most of his adult life in Latin America, Bishop Miller is an authority on the subject.

The "special feature" talk each Sunday, from 6:15 to 7, will be the highlight of a two-hour program starting at 5:30 with special music, followed at 6 by worship. From 7 to 7:30 there will be a fellowship and refreshment period.

Oscar Busch is in charge of the musical portions of the programs. At the first Family Night, Ray Hammonds and Elaine Ranker will sing.

The worship service is planned by the Women's Society of Christian Service, with Therese Amick, Verna Ramsey, Jo Shoplough and Alice Shaner serving as the committee.

Mrs. Edith Brekke is in charge of fellowship and refreshments. Each Sunday night a different group will handle this half-hour. The Men's Club will do so this Sunday.

In connection with the Family Nights program, there will be, during the lecture period, special gatherings at the church for pre-school children, kindergarten and primary grades, and grades 4, 5 and 6.

The nursery program, with Mrs. Pat Cutler in charge, will include a story section on Mexico, while the other two juvenile series will feature Latin American stories, games and songs.

'The Christian's Companion' Topic Of Rev. Peterson

"The Christian and His Companion" will be the subject of Rev. Joel S. Peterson at Mission Covenant Church in Lafayette Sunday morning.

"The Christian's companion is the Holy Spirit," says Rev. Peterson. "In the Scriptures He is known as the Comforter or Helper, the third Person in the Holy Trinity. His mission is to universalize Christ and make Him known to men. In the days of His flesh, Jesus was known to only a few people and they were confined to Palestine. Since His ascension to the Father, the necessary condition for the coming of the Holy Spirit, Christ is being made known to all races and to all lands through the ministry of the Spirit.

"This gracious Companion comes to every believer to make Jesus Christ a reality. Through Him the Christian has light for his problems, strength for his task and comfort for his sorrows. What more could a man ask? With less, he is in the dark."

The evening subject will be "The Growth of the Kingdom." Rev. Peterson will use as scriptural basis the two companion parables found in Matthew 13:31-33, the one on the mustard seed and the other on the leaven. The choir will sing, and there will be a trumpet solo by Dick Lotter.

Hafners Hear from Richard in Manila

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hafner heard recently from their son Richard, U. C. graduate who had reached Manila after a very rough sea trip. In a few days he was to go to Hong Kong for a week of sight-seeing and then would be on his way to Jakarta, Indonesia, where he will work for his master's degree and engage in journalistic work.

Bad Smashup Narrowly Averted as Car Speeds Back, Forth Across Double Line

This wasn't an accident — but it came pretty close to being one. How close it came and how serious the accident, if it had occurred, could have been were undoubtedly etched in the minds of several motorists.

Place: Upper Happy Valley Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Time: About 4 p.m. on a recent Friday. Fairly heavy auto traffic moving in both directions along the highway. A car containing a mother and young daughter were on Upper Happy Valley Road at the intersection, waiting to make a left turn onto the boulevard.

Suddenly, the sound of many brakes screeching as drivers abruptly halted their cars.

Zooming eastward at a speed of perhaps 70 miles an hour, a sedan occupied by four or five young fellows careened along Mt. Diablo Boulevard. It swerved in front of three or four autos that had stopped in the inside east-bound lane; then it went clear over the double line and sped against oncoming west-bound traffic.

The madly speeding car missed by barely a foot a west-bound car that had stopped at Upper Happy Valley Road. If it had hit that car, chances are that the hit vehicle might in turn have been hurled onto the car in which were the mother and child, and also another stopped car, in the outer west-bound lane.

Back over the double line shot the "daredevil" car, across the east-bound inside lane again and then onto the outer lane. All this time its speed was undiminished.

A short distance east of Upper Happy Valley Road it stopped, and the youths in it looked back, apparently to see if any damage had been done. After a moment it sped on again, toward central Lafayette.

The autos in the vicinity of the intersection resumed their movement. Some of the drivers looked bewildered. The mother in the car with her child, rather than venture on the highway, turned the car around and proceeded back on Upper Happy Valley Road, taking a back-road route to her destination.

'Narcotics' Talk To Rotarians by Police Sergeant

Orinda Rotarians heard a discussion on "Narcotics" by Sergeant Guy Skelton of the Oakland Police Department Wednesday.

Sergeant Skelton's talk was delivered at the weekly noon luncheon meeting of the Orinda Rotary Club at the Willows.

Progress toward formation of a Y.M.C.A. group in the Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek area was described at last week's meeting. The guest speaker was John Price of the Berkeley Y.M.C.A., who is working on the project.

Price told what the Y.M.C.A. is trying to do in this area and of its program aims.

One phase covers the formation of a pre-cut age group, boys in the five to eight or nine year old bracket, to be known as the Indian Guides.

Proposed to foster closer companionship between fathers and sons, the new group is organized on a national scale. It does not interfere with the cubbing program, Price explained.

He also told of plans for starting a High Y group for high school age boys who might not be able to get into Berkeley for the Y.M.C.A. programs there.

Leighton MacGregor is program chairman.

St. Stephen's Rummage Sale Set for Two Days

All proceeds from St. Stephen's first rummage sale will go toward the purchase of a new church organ. Last-minute preparations are being made, and due to the unusual amount of rummage collected it has been decided to hold the sale for two days — Tuesday and Wednesday — instead of one.

The place is Norway Hall at 3829 Piedmont Avenue, Oakland.

Last-minute workers are badly needed, and anyone with any time to devote to this worthy cause is urgently requested to contact Mrs. Harold S. Doane at Orinda 2022 and offer her services.

Everything from toys to furniture and from rug rugs to hand-knit dresses will be offered for sale, so don't miss this big opportunity from the buying angle, either!

ST. STEPHEN'S Episcopal Church feels very fortunate in having James Brown appointed to handle the Every Member Canvass this year. To get this off to a good start, the Fall Parish Meeting will be held at the church Wednesday, 7-9 p.m. Dessert and coffee will be served, and plans for next year will be discussed.

There will be a speaker from the Bishop's Men of the Diocese of California and a sound movie will be shown.

SERVICES FOR SUNDAY, the 24th Sunday after Trinity, as follows:

9:45 a.m. church school, grades 1-upward; 11 a.m., morning prayer and sermon; also at 11, primary department meets at Oak Springs Clubhouse; 4 p.m., Adult Confirmation Class; 6 p.m., Young People's Fellowship swimming party and barbecue at Jim Brown's, Los Arabis and Rahara Drive, Upper Happy Valley, Lafayette.

For November, the Holy Communion Service will be held on the second Sunday, November 11.

Dramatizing of 'Esther' Sunday

The opening worship service of the Assemblies of God Sunday School, meeting in Veterans Memorial Building, will feature a dramatization of the Book of Esther by the young people Sunday. The scenes will be pantomimed as the story is read.

The Walton family of Vallejo will be featured in the Sunday evening service. There will be special instrumental numbers presented by the group. The service will be climaxed by the evangelistic message, preached by J. C. Walton.

Your Garden

Yes, There's Plenty of Garden Work That Can Be Done This Time of Year!

By BERT WRIGHT

THERE'S PLENTY of garden work to do now.

Cut back perennials as they finish bloom. Pull spent beds of annuals, spade the ground and feed it for the next planting.

Chrysanthemums may need re-tying and extra stakes. They'll need plenty of water if blooms are to last. Don't dig dahlias, glads and tuberous begonias till the tops have withered.

IT'S A GOOD TIME for planning. Go over the garden as a whole. Are there shrubs that are crowding, perennials that need to be thinned? If you have made notes during the season, they will be a great help.

Did some of the annuals grow too tall for their places? Check color combinations that were good and those that were not. Will more lawn area help the garden? If so, it is not too late.

BULB-PLANTING is the main job this month. Daffodils, tulips, lilies, ranunculus, anemones, hyacinths are ready to go in now. If the soil can be planted where they will get plenty of water.

Plant Dutch, Spanish and English bulbous iris — daffodil — narcissus — jonquil: daffodils are the very easiest and hardiest of the bulbs.

Once established, they will last and multiply year after year, if you let the foliage ripen naturally after the bloom. Best planting depths vary with soil and locality. Average depth for large daffodils is six inches; tulips, five inches; hyacinths, six inches; Dutch and Spanish iris, four inches.

SET ALL BULBS on a half-inch layer of sand to prevent rot. When planting, dig a goodly portion of bone meal into the soil.

Hyacinths (grape), snowflakes, ranunculus, anemones and freesias should go in, right now. Tulips can wait until the middle of the month and even into December.

If your tulip bed has been spotty and irregular, try digging out the soil to the planting depth. Spade the soil underneath, set the bulbs on sand, and fill back the top soil without tamping. Stems will then be of even height and all bulbs of a variety will bloom at the same time. It's work, but worth it.

THERE ARE PLENTY of plants and flowers that should be set out without further delay.

Plant snapdragons, winter stocks, delphiniums, pansies, violas, primulas, primroses, Sweet William, foxgloves, penstemon, Canterbury bells and many others.

Also, calendulas, columbine and forget-me-nots can be added to this list.

Lawns can still be sown, but you must hurry.

TO STORE CABBAGE outdoors, simply pull them from the soil, roots and all, turn them upside down on a dry section of the garden and bury them in leaves. Or the plant can be placed in the same manner in a trench 12 inches deep and then covered.

Hardy water lilies may be left in large pools with sufficient water depth. Small shallow pools should be drained or protected with boards covered with hay and leaves held down by heavy branches.

POT-THRIFTY PARSLEY plants for the sunny window, to use in garnishing food during the winter.

Give house plants plenty of ventilation and watch for scale and mealy bugs which gain footholds in a warm room.

SPREAD GREEN TOMATOES on newspapers or burlap in a sheltered porch for ripening.

'Body and Soul' Sermon Sunday

On Sunday morning Pastor Luther Berven of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Lafayette will speak on the sermon topic, "Body and Soul," using as his text II Corinthians 5:1-10. Identical services are held at 8 and 10:45 a.m.

At 7:30 p.m. Sunday Mrs. Duncan Knudsen will give a reading and Pastor Berven will speak on "What Christians Believe About Prayer."

The Women of the Church will meet Monday evening at 8. Dr. Edward Mattson, executive secretary of the Lutheran Welfare Council of Northern California, will be guest speaker.

"The resurrection of Jesus Christ, one of the best established facts in history, proved once and for all that man has both a body and a soul, that there is life beyond the grave," says Pastor Berven.

"The body as we know it now in its present physical state is for man's use in this life, but his soul will live for all eternity. Death, then, to the Christian is not the end of everything but rather a transformation from a physical-spiritual being to a wholly spiritual being. On Judgment Day with the Second Coming of Christ the soul will be reunited with the body which will be raised from the grave and glorified."

12-15 Club Lunch Attended by 60

The 12-15 Club had a delightful benefit luncheon and card party October 23 at the home of Mrs. Murray Groves, attended by 60 members and guests.

More donations, added to those received during the past year for the hand-made quilt, were received.

Mrs. G. Chester Brown won the quilt.

The club's next meeting for business and sewing will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Raskob, 48 Charles Hill Road, on November 13. Its annual bazaar will be held November 27 at the home of Mrs. Richard Hafner, 49 Loma Vista.

Condon Will Run for Congress Provided:

By POLITICUS

Political columnists have been having a gay time the past few weeks conjecturing about Contra Costa County politics. No. 1 in the crystal ball are the congressional and assemblymen races.

Here's the situation: Our Democratic congressman, George P. Miller, must decide in which of the two newly-formed congressional districts he will run — the Southern Alameda District or the Contra Costa-Solano District. His home is in the city of Alameda. But since he does not have to be a resident of his own congressional district, he may run in the new Contra Costa-Solano District, which is a Democratic stronghold.

If George P. decides to stay in his own backyard in the new Eighth, then, say the political columnists, Bob Condon will take a try for the Washington job. This is only one rumor swirling about Assemblyman Condon's head.

Well, old Politicus lent his crystal ball to a friend at the last sooth-sayers' convention, so he has to use another system. Politicus was stumped for a while — but not for long. He reached for a gadget called a telephone and called Mr. Condon in his Walnut Creek home (Saranap, to be exact).

"Are you going to run for Congress?"

Condon said he was "potentially available."

Yes, he could say he would run, providing George P. Miller doesn't run, and "it's still very early to decide."

Then, came THE question: "Where do you think George P. will run?"

Our Democratic assemblyman did not know for sure, but guessed that he would stay in the Alameda arena. Nor did he know when George P. would decide, except, "of course, it will have to be before the March filing deadline."

Politicus then asked Condon why State Senator George Miller Jr. did not eye the congressional plum.

Condon, who is close to our State Senator Miller, said, "He doesn't want it. His wife and children don't want to go to Washington and I don't think he wants to, either."

He then said: "Here's something you can quote me in answer to recent newspaper reports. If I run for reelection to the Assembly, I will NOT move to Richmond to gain political advantage. My home is here and will remain here. Why — Eleanor would divorce me if I tried to move away."

This answers the conjecture that Condon would establish residence in Richmond so that he would have an easier race in the overwhelmingly Democratic Richmond district. (Assemblymen and state senators must live in the districts they represent. Congressmen do not have to.)

As you know, the county has been split into two assembly districts — Richmond area is one; the rest of the county is the other.

Condon acknowledged that there are more Republicans in this district, but added that he thought he would not have too much trouble to win here.

What about Donald Doyle, resident of Lafayette and an Oakland insurance man, who has been mentioned as a possible G. O. P. candidate for the Assembly?

"I know him mainly from his appearance before an Assembly subcommittee that I was on. He is young, personable, aggressive..."

Condon did not know of his political ambitions.

Well, election time is not far away — next June, to be exact. So old Politicus will be nosing around and will report to you from time to time.

Political Rumors Are in the Air

Political rumors about Contra Costa County have been buzzing around and reported in the daily press. (See adjoining story by the Sun's political writer, Politicus.) Here are a few of the recent ones and one that's older than the hills:

1. Congressman George P. Miller will move to Contra Costa County — or at least will run for Congress from this district.

2. Or Congressman Miller will run in the new southern Alameda district and Assemblyman Robert Condon will be a congressional candidate in the new Contra Costa-Solano district.

3. Or Condon will not run for Congress. He will move from Walnut Creek to "sure-Democrat" Richmond to seek reelection to the Assembly rather than risk possible defeat in this district.

4. District Attorney Francis W. Collins will resign before 1954 and Cliff Anglim of El Cerrito will be named to succeed him. Anglim, one-time chairman of the State Democratic Committee and former Collector of Internal Revenue, was recently appointed a deputy in the district attorney's office. He ran for state senator

Soldiers Boost Stoneman Blood To 1488 Pints

Overseas - bound soldiers processing at Camp Stoneman helped the army post pass its October blood quota by donating 394 pints when the Stockton Red Cross Bloodmobile visited there October 23.

The collection boosted the Stoneman total for the month to 1488 pints, well above the recently-established monthly goal of 1450 pints. Another visit by the Bloodmobile was made last Tuesday.

Most of the 394 "casual" donors last week tabbed for assignment in the Far East, were eager to donate blood.

"I'm glad to give my blood," one soldier declared. "The blood I give may save my life or a buddy's life after I'm overseas."

The Armed Forces Blood Program is a nationwide campaign to obtain 2,800,000 pints of blood and blood plasma to place in reserve for all the services.

Seniors Confer With Official Of Stanford U.

Acalanes seniors interested in attending Stanford University after high school graduation were given an opportunity to check into the opportunities offered on "The Farm" this week when a representative of the Stanford Admissions Office visited Acalanes High School.

Sponsored by the school counseling office, the visit of the Stanford official, along with visits by other officials from colleges all over the country, is a part of the detailed service given each senior in helping him select the college of his choice.

A file of bulletins from colleges is also kept within easy student reach by the counseling department.

National Leader Among Visitors To Newly Dedicated Red Cross Quarters

An American Red Cross official from Washington, D. C., headed the list of dignitaries who attended last Friday night's dedication rites for the new Mt. Diablo Chapter Red Cross headquarters in Walnut Creek.

He was John L. Dismuke, Red Cross fund drive director, who arrived in the company of Samuel B. Montgomery, Pacific Area manager for Red Cross.

Other names on the hand-carved guest book contributed by Charles Marshall Sayres include Miss Marie Adams, field director; Miss Vera Wilkesen, assistant field director; Commander J. A. Whitman, Oak Knoll Naval Hospital chaplain and Mrs. Whitman.

COL. F. J. CLUNE and Mrs. Clune of Camp Stoneman; Carleton S. Wilder, Pacific Area general field representative; Phoebe Steffy and Gladys Tibbot, Volunteer Service; Edwin D. Rounds, regional director; Clinton Brown, chapter chairman for Central Contra Costa; Mrs. Evelyn Wheelan, executive director, and Mrs. Marian Conklin, executive secretary from Berkeley, and Mayor Joseph Bell of Walnut Creek.

Visitors left behind $25 in cash to aid in buying furniture for the new Chapter headquarters, while other generous callers donated a silver coffee service and an electric clock.

WITH THE DEDICATION services behind them, Red Cross authorities this week settled back and renewed efforts to form First Aid classes here.

"The response to date has been nothing short of apathetic," one spokesman reported. "We have only three applicants for a class now ready to start and the least we should have is eight."

Now is the time to learn first aid. It will be too late when an emergency arrives.

Open House Is Climax to Therapy Center Fund Drive

Mount Diablo Therapy Center had its "open house" last Sunday in the new quarters in the Highland Medical Building in Walnut Creek.

The affair climaxed a membership drive which was managed by Mrs. Ida Zamloch of Orinda and Carl J. Ross, executive director of the Center. Everyone interested in this community rehabilitation work was invited to inspect the Center and to take part in the celebration.

Members of the five auxiliaries furnished the refreshments and decorations and acted as hostesses. These groups — the Orinda Tanagers, Orinda Orioles, Lafayette Larks, Emily Ann Doyle Auxiliary of Danville and the new Concord auxiliary — have become a very important part of the Center.

MRS. THOMAS EDWARDS, president of the Board of Directors, presented the staff — Carl Ross, executive director; Mrs. Frances Webb, occupational therapist; Harry Freeman, physical therapist, and Mrs. Alice Bowman, a new physical therapist, who will give treatments in the homes of the patients.

Highlight of the afternoon was presentation and dedication of the Emily Ann Doyle Memorial Plaque. About a year ago, a memorial fund was established in memory of the daughter of Mary Doyle. Mrs. Doyle is responsible for the founding and much of the success of the Center.

THIS FUND WAS established to help deserving non-polio patients who are unable to defray the entire cost of necessary treatments. The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis defrays this cost in the case of polio patients.

The Center treats a great many patients suffering from such afflictions as arthritis, multiple sclerosis and cerebral palsy.

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE find that this is a very satisfying way of remembering loved ones.

Mrs. Warren McKibben, an old friend of Mrs. Doyle, who has watched this community and the Center grow, presented the plaque to Mrs. Doyle.

Anyone wishing to see the plaque and to learn more about it and the Center will be most welcome.

Crockett Indians Scalp Dons 14-12 In Heartbreaker

Two missed conversion tries kept the Acalanes Dons from remaining in the undefeated class when they did everything but outscore the John Swett Indians in a league game at the Crockett field last Friday.

Final score was: John Swett, 14; Acalanes, 12.

Fumbles played a prominent part in the Acalanes downfall. The Dons dropped the ball on six different occasions, and the Indians recovered.

THE FIRST QUARTER found the Dons on the offense as they ran up yardage. But they took until early in the second period to score. Fullback Eric Murray crashed over from five yards out to culminate a 55-yard drive.

John Swett's first tally came in the same quarter when Dick Fey attempted to pass from his own seven only to have it batted down and caught by 250-pound Vince Di Maggio, who proceeded to waddle over the goal lines.

Seconds later Joel Heckman kicked the all-important point through the uprights for a 7-6 lead. THE DONS began to score, taking the ensuing kickoff with Eddie Greub coming back 13 yards to his 37.

On the next play Eric Murray found a hole up the middle and fought his way free of the line to get all the way for a 63-yard gallop into the end zone.

The try for point missed, and it was 12-7 at the halfway mark. The Indians' final and winning score came in the third stanza. The Dons fumbled on their 22, and six plays later it was in the end zone, with Heckman converting — and the sad tale was told, 14-12.

Statistics gave the Dons six first downs to three and 208 net yards to 42.

But the big item was 14 points as against 12. That's what counted. On October 25, the Acalanes Junior Varsity had a field day when they posted a 24-0 win.

The J. V.'s played their best game of the season. The win was highlighted by a 52-yard touch-down run by Freshman John Conley.

The Don Babes were in command all the way as they racked up their second win of the season.

Jack Merchant Joins Junior College Staff

After thirty-five years of service with the California and Hawaii Sugar Refining Corporation, from which organization he has retired, Jack Merchant yesterday joined the Contra Costa Junior College District ranks as a teacher-coordinator of supervisory training.

Merchant started with the C&H Sugar Refining Corporation as a laborer, advancing through various supervisory and administrative positions to that of director of public relations.

NAVAL AIR STATION JOBS

The Naval Air Station, Alameda, needs 10 apprentices who will earn a salary while they learn one of the following skilled trades: Aircraft Instrument Mechanic, Aircraft Mechanic General, Aircraft Mechanic Motor, Automotive Mechanic, Carpenter, Electrician, Electrician Aircraft, Electronics Mechanic, Machinist, Metalsmith Aviation, Pipefitter, Plumber and Sheetmetal Worker.

FROM MILTIE

Sounds goofy but if your scissors won't cut paper, try cutting sandpaper! After you've whacked off a couple dozen strips of fine sandpaper, they'll be sharp enough to cut the ordinary variety. Pretty sharp, eh?

Of course the thing that's wrong about this, who wants to keep sandpaper around the house just to be able to whack off a few pieces of it to sharpen your scissors. It would be a lot more reasonable to remember that your scissors aren't sharp when you hear the guy walking up the street ringing the bell announcing that he is there to sharpen same. Or else do it yourself on a scissor sharpening gadget.

Often a man's hat which would otherwise have lots of good wear left in it, will develop unsightly perspiration or grease stains. You can help prevent this condition by inserting a strip of cellophane between the sweat band and the crown when the hat is new.

Dons' Panthers in Grid Tiff Here Tonight

The Antioch Panthers are the foes of the Acalanes Dons on the local gridiron tonight, with kickoff times slated for 8 o'clock.

Both elevens will be attempting to get in the win column. Antioch tied up 6-all with the Alhambra Bulldogs last Friday, while the Dons dropped a 14-12 decision to John Swett.

Antioch has suffered two league setbacks to date at the hands of Pittsburg and Diablo.

Acalanes eked by its only other league opponent, Albany, 7-6.

For the Dons it is do or die as far as county honors are concerned, as a win in all remaining games would give them a tie at the worst.

The Dons are slated to start with an all-Senior backfield, with Al Culp and Eddie Greub at halves, Eric Murray at full and Dick Fey at quarterback.

In the line it appears to be John Daniels and Jerry Henderson at the end spots with Bob Borghesani and Richard Ting at tackles.

Buzz Williams is set at right guard with Wayne Brannan or Charles Ostrom on the left side of center. John Boron looks to be the best bet at the pivot position.

Roy Dickerson and "Butch" Dosey appear to be Antioch's top backfield threats and on a good night could give the Dons a bad time of it.

Much will depend on how well the Dons bounce back after their upset at the hands of Crockett last week.

Rules Interpreting Not Always Easy; Example—That Out-of-Bounds Kickoff

By ERWIN MATTSO

Difficulty of interpreting football rules was well illustrated last weekend at the Diablo - Pittsburg game when the officials "booted" the ruling regarding kicking out of bounds on the kickoff.

Mt. Diablo kicked off and the ball went out of bounds on Pitt's 15, whereupon the officials held a hiving conference and ended up having Diablo kick over.

THE RULING WAS O.K., based on collegiate rules but not on high school rules.

The college version allows two kicks while the high school rule book states that in event the kicking team kicks out of bounds, the ball shall be given to the opposing team on its 40-yard line.

Another rule that causes a lot of confusion is the one relating to fumbles going out of bounds.

The old regulation provided that the ball went to the team last touching it.

The new regulation provides that the ball goes to the team last in possession.

Incidentally, the Diablo - Pittsburg game drew better than 5,000 paid admissions.

The way Contra Costa County is growing, that kind of a crowd will not be too uncommon.

A LEAGUE MEETING has been called for Monday night at Alhambra High School in Martinez. Schedules for Spring activities and other matters of an athletic nature will come up before the group of coaches and principals.

Anglers Need No License If They Fish from Public Pier in Ocean

Confusion surrounding a new legislative law which eliminates the requirement for angling licenses while fishing from a public pier in Pacific Ocean waters has been clarified by the California Attorney General's office.

According to the Department of Fish and Game, no arrests will be made for fishing without an angling license from a public pier "which is publicly-owned, or a privately-owned pier to which the right of free access has been dedicated to the public."

"A PRIVATELY - OWNED pier to which the public is admitted from time to time only at the sufferance or pleasure of the owner is not a public pier," the Attorney General's office states. The word "pier," according to the opinion, includes a jetty or breakwater constructed to protect or form a harbor.

Under the new law, "ocean waters comprise all of the open sea adjacent to the coast and islands of California."

fornia and include the waters of those enclosed bays and open roadsteads contiguous to the ocean."

THE BROAD DEFINITION includes Humboldt, Tomales, San Francisco, San Pedro and San Diego Bays, as well as such open roadsteads as Santa Monica, Monterey and San Luis Obispo Bays.

"Ocean waters" do not include Richmond, San Pablo or other bays adjacent to San Francisco Bay.

There is no change in the license requirement for ocean fishing from boats, beaches, rocks, cliffs or private piers, the department warns.

Evening Chorus Rehearsals Open

Full rehearsals of the Acalanes Evening Chorus are now under way and plans are being made for the presentation of the "Messiah" again this December in the Acalanes Auditorium.

First rehearsal of the season was held October 22 under the direction of Bruce Handley, followed by reorganization of the group and the naming of new officers.

Burt Scarborough was elected president; Margaret Price, vice-president, and John Herrmann, secretary.

The new officers met immediately and named the following directors to serve as chairmen of various committees:

Mildred Van de Mert, treasurer; John Herrmann, membership; Chris Lindstrom, program; Margaret Price and Marlon Pangborn, financial drive, and Winifred Wilson, publicity.

Former members and new members are urged to attend the regular Monday night rehearsals at 7:30 p. m. in Room 38 of the Acalanes High School.

Chairman Margaret Price of the Financial Committee immediately announced a drive to enlist patrons and patronesses in support of the Chorus program. Should sufficient funds be made available it is hoped that Mendelssohn's "Elijah" can be presented next spring.

Among the first to be signed were the following:

Mrs. Erin T. Biggs, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bancroft Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Owen L. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Neil M. Parsons, Mr. and Mrs. Drummond McCunn, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Englehart.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Maguire, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Embree, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Platt, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Bigger.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrell J. Reilly, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Beede, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cherrington, Mrs. and Mrs. Russell E. Larson, Frederick Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nave.

Mrs. Charles P. Howard Sr., Lawrence Davitt, Mrs. Peter Howard, Clinton Newell, Mrs. Frederick Conter, Col. Howard M. Smiten, Mr. and Mrs. Tonder B. Strand, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wohlgenuth.

Jane Castellanos Gets J. C. Position

Dr. Jane Castellanos was appointed to the position of teacher-coordinator in charge of Family Life Education for the Contra Costa Junior College District, at the meeting of the Board of Trustees last week.

Dr. Castellanos, in accepting this assignment, assumes a portion of the administrative responsibilities previously supervised by Phoebe Ward, who resigned last month to accept a position in San Francisco.

HAVE YOU A PET PHOBIA? If you're a girl you probably have about 3.55 phobias, while a boy has 2.21.

A few of the more common phobias are ophidiophobia (fear of snakes), acrophobia (fear of height) or triskaidekaphobia (yes, it's spelled right) the fear of the number 13!

Isn't that interesting, though?

ACALANES SENIORS have decided to become very organized. Committees are being formed to handle such problems as caps and gowns, announcements and graduation.

Plans are also being made to earn money for this year's class. Congratulations for a well organized class.

The Acalanes mixed chorus took part in a music festival at Cal last Saturday. All the schools from the area entered either a chorus or band, or in some cases both.

It was in the form of a contest, with winners chosen from each section. All students participating were given passes to the football game between Cal and Oregon. The choruses and bands took part in the activities during half-time.

HAVE YOU A PROBLEM? If so, get your parents to come to the new course being offered at the Acalanes evening school. This course is called "The Prevention of Emotional Maladjustments in the Family."

What a name! I wonder if it will accomplish anything?

HAVE YOU EVER TRIED to give a party? Believe me, it's a very complicated process!

First you choose a date. That isn't as easy as it sounds.

Then you find a place to have it, and then who will come.

If you want the details of the complications that can arise, just ask four senior girls who recently gave a party!

CLUBS, CLUBS and more clubs! That seems to be the general trend at Acalanes.

Just to give you an idea of what I mean — Ski Club, French Club, Spanish Honorary Society, Y-Teens, Junior Statesmen . . . These groups are fun and really worth while.

What would the average Senior girl look like? Be sure and read this column next week and find out.

Area Delegates at Mills Alumnae Council Sessions Held on Campus

Delegates from branches in this area attended the Mills College Alumnae Council sessions on the college campus this week.

Delegates from the Diablo area were Mesdames C. T. Gartin, J. Blaker Herod, Lawrence Green, F. E. Murphy, Herbert von Colditz and L. Brennan Blackledge. Mrs. Blackledge attended all the meetings, remaining on the campus to act as Mt. Diablo Branch representative.

Orinda delegates were Mesdames Stuart Henderson, Ben Randall, Kirk Miles, M. E. Spaight and Tom Nicholl. Each of these delegates attended on a different day, so that a comprehensive report can be given to the Orinda Mills Club.

THE GENERAL BUSINESS meeting Monday reunited many old friends from all parts of the country. This first meeting was followed by luncheon at the Reinhardt House.

Monday afternoon was devoted to a session on branch problems and an "at home" for the executive secretary.

During the week there were meetings covering all aspects of alumnae activities, including student recommendation, public relations and class secretaries.

THE FOUNDERS DAY program Wednesday was highlighted by an address by Dr. Monroe Deutsch on "Looking Forward — and Backward."

Yesterday was the final day of Alumnae Council meetings and marked the start of the World Affairs Conference Humanities Symposium which continues through today. The symposium is led by Dr. Rollo May of Columbia University. All council delegates are welcome to remain on the campus for the conference.

All Mills alumnae, whether affiliated with branches or not, have been welcome at the week's meetings.

New Demo Club Holds 1st Meet

First meeting of the newly-formed Mt. Diablo Democratic Club, which will be issued a charter shortly by the Democratic County Central Committee, was held Monday evening in the Mt. Diablo High School Auditorium. Raynolds Johnson, acting chairman of the organization, announced today.

"It is our wish to establish a county-wide organization, centering largely in the 10th Assembly District, which will look forward to the critical 1952 county, state, and national elections, in which grassroots organization can be the most effective guarantee of success," Raynolds Johnson, acting chairman, said.

Gamma Phi Beta Honors Officers

Mrs. William Patterson of Orinda was one of the honorees at a tea given at the Gamma Phi Beta house on the University of California campus October 25 for the sorority's province officers.

The tea was attended by several hundred guests, including representatives from the other sororities, the deans of women at the university and active and alumnae Gamma Phi Betas of the Bay Area.

Mrs. Clifford Nelle of Walnut Creek and Mrs. David E. Stewart of Lafayette assisted with the arrangements.

Mrs. Peters Hostess At Gamma Phi Meet

Mrs. Richard F. Peters of Springhill Road, Lafayette, opened her home to Gamma Phi Beta alumnae of Contra Costa County for their monthly meeting, October 25.

About 20 members were present. Besides helping the Berkeley alumnae chapter to sponsor a rummage sale November 27 and 28, they currently are providing clothing and toys for a family which they have "adopted."

Mrs. Clifford Nelle of Walnut Creek is president of the Contra Costa chapter.

Acalanes Singers Top Song Festival

The Acalanes High School Chorus took first place last Saturday among medium choruses at the Ninth Annual High School Singing Festival at the University of California.

The Acalanes group was made up of 60 students who joined with the 1500 voices which rendered a Bach Chorale and "Era of Peace" during the halftime at the California-Oregon State football game.

Among other schools competing were Albany, Alhambra, Calaveras, Castlemont, Cloverdale, Dixon and El Cerrito.

7 New Members Join Ranks of Daphne Branch

Daphne Branch of The Children's Hospital held its formal initiation at the home of Nancy Carroll October 24.

Seven new members were officially introduced into the group and told of their responsibilities.

The Daphne Branch, composed entirely of Acalanes Senior and Junior girls, has 30 members.

The seven newcomers are Leslie Beebe, Kay Mickle, Marilyn Davis, June Derry, Nancy Edminster, Carolyn Goforth and Sandy Humble.

Report on Israel Given at Meeting

An exciting, up-to-the-minute report on Israel and current developments in the Middle East was featured at a community meeting sponsored by the Jewish Welfare Federation Wednesday night in the Covenant Hall of Temple Sinai, Oakland. Isidore Schonwald is president of the federation board.

Making his first official visit to the East Bay was the newly-appointed Israeli consul for Western United States, Harry Beilin. Sharing the platform with him was Dr. Frank L. Kingdon, noted radio commentator, journalist and author, who recently returned from the Middle East.

The impact of present-day unrest upon the efforts of the state of Israel to absorb hundreds of thousands of immigrants was highlighted by both speakers. The program started with the showing of the newest film produced in Israel, a documentary entitled "Tent City." There was also a musical program.

Reception Honors Consul of Israel

A community reception honoring the newly appointed consul of Israel, Harry Beilin, was held Wednesday evening in Covenant Hall of Temple Sinai, Oakland, under auspices of the Jewish Welfare Federation.

The program included musical selections and the newest Israeli film, "Tent City."

Simpson Interior Sets Gala Opening

Wm. S. Simpson Interiors will display its new building containing its attractive store and spacious workrooms at a grand opening this Friday and Saturday.

The modern shop offers fine custom draperies, drapery fabrics, an excellent selection of carpeting, traverse rods, blinds, screens and Venetian blinds, according to owner Bill Simpson. It is located between Diamond K Supply and Lesure Plumbing on Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

Mr. Simpson, a native of Oakland and a graduate of University of California, has made his home in Lafayette for four years, and has been in business for himself the past three years. His wife, Virginia, has been a resident of Lafayette for 11 years. An Acalanes High School graduate, she attended the College of Arts and Crafts.

Frank Peck has had 32 years of experience with leading bay area decorators and department stores installing draperies.

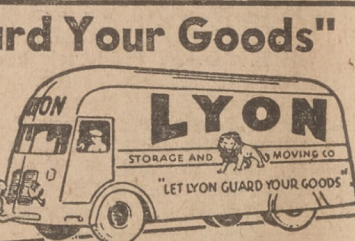

Desty Quackenbush and Ellen Slonaker, who have tailored many of the outstanding custom drapery installations in the Bay Area, gave up their own shop in Oakland to add their talents to the staff. Each has had 25 years experience. Gladys De Leshe is in charge of the office. The building and business represent a $50,000 investment. The structure is one of the most attractive in Lafayette.

The Simpsons and staff invite you to see their new store and inspect the workshops this Friday and Saturday.

KEEP SPEED DOWN It may be great sport to test out the speed capacity of that new car, but it is a sport that may easily turn to tragedy. Under present crowded highway conditions, you should at all times keep your speed down to the point that gives you complete control of your car.

Memo to Washington -- Schools Are Vital

(An Editorial)

The first line of our National Defense is our schools. If we fail to provide decent schools for our children, there won't be much left for which to fight.

We would be much more hesitant to speak out against the apparent bungling in official Washington were it not as plain as the nose on the faces of our N.P.A. chieftains that building schools is not going to take away bullets or bombs from our fighting men.

Nor will it in any way halt industrial expansion in case of "all-out" war. It simply doesn't take that much steel to build a school.

Like most households, we are greatly concerned with the school situation here at home. School Superintendent Sheldon Rankin of Walnut Creek and Superintendent James Dent of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District have already made long journeys to Washington and successfully won release of sufficient steel to complete a few additional classrooms to existing schools.

Our needs here are much greater than that. Numerous new schools are needed if we are to keep pace with our rapidly expanding population.

As this is written, military authorities from the Parks Air Force Base in Southern Alameda County are visiting here with pleas for low-cost housing to satisfy the wants of some 8000 air-flight instructors who will be stationed at the base.

The arrival of these military personnel means more children for our already crowded classrooms.

Contra Costa County will certainly welcome them—lack of schools or not. But we doubt if the military folks would be happy if they arrived and found no schools for their youngsters.

All of which adds proof to the pudding.

The first line of our National Defense is our schools.

Song of the Road? Supervisors Trying New Procedure in Handling Complaints

Roads — roads — roads . . . The Board of Supervisors isn't exactly sick of hearing of road complaints, but it seems that there are so many of them that frequently it has been impossible to plow through a day's agenda in the day scheduled.

Each road complaint, from an irate individual or an aroused improvement association, was duly read to the board, then referred to County Road Commissioner Joseph Barkley and the supervisor from the district involved. Later, after investigation by them, the matter would be reported back to the board, with recommendations, and the board would act.

As result of handling so many individual road complaints in their introductory stages, many Monday board meetings, after dragging on to past 6 p.m., have had to be continued to a later day in the week.

Last week the supervisors grappled with the problem and came up with what they hoped would be a solution.

They authorized County Clerk W. T. Paasch to automatically route all letters concerning road problems relating to one supervisorial district only to Barkley, in cooperation with County Administrator D. M. Teeter and the supervisor of the district, is to study the complaint.

When they are ready to report their findings and recommendations — and not until then — the item is to come before the Board of Supervisors.

That procedure, the supervisors hope, will facilitate both the handling of road complaints and the conducting of board meetings. Anyway, the supervisors are keeping their fingers crossed . . .

County Road Bond Issue to be Placed Before Voters at Primaries Next June

A county road bond issue will be placed before the voters at the June, 1952 primary election, according to present plans of the Board of Supervisors.

Ralph A. Tudor, consulting engineer of San Francisco, has been asked to make a study of county highway needs in preparation for submission of the bond issue.

The supervisors have no preconceived figure for the bond issue, according to County Administrator Desmond Teeter, but the sum sought will be larger than the $3,000,000 bond issue for road construction rejected in November, 1948.

The supervisors hope to have the data before them by March 1. Contra Costa County Development Association officials estimate it may require $16,000,000 to put the county-maintained roads into shape.

Football Queen Contest Getting 'Hot'

Candidates from the four classes at Acalanes High School — senior, junior, sophomore and freshmen — continued to jockey for leading positions in the current polling for an Acalanes Football Queen to be crowned at the Pittsburg game November 16.

Now in the lead, according to Walt Williams, student rally committee director, are Senior Paula Cory, Junior June Derry, Sophomore Carol Demeter and Freshman Cathy Greub.

Plans are tentatively being made to have local merchants donate prizes for the Football Queen, to be presented on Acalanes Field at the Pittsburg game.

Sermon Explains Jacob's Prophecy

Jacob's prophecies to six of his sons as given in the forty-ninth chapter of Genesis, are explained in their spiritual import in the Christian Science Lesson - Sermon for Sunday, November 4.

This sermon, on the subject "Everlasting Punishment," will be comprised of citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following:

Genesis: "Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise; thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee" (49:8).

Science and Health: "The calm, strong currents of true spirituality, the manifestations of which are health, purity, and self-immolation, must deepen human experience, until the beliefs of material existence are seen to be a bald imposition, and sin, disease, and death give everlasting place to the scientific demonstration of divine Spirit and to God's spiritual, perfect man" (p. 99).

Scout Leaders Hold Roundtable Training Meeting

Twenty-five Boy Scout and Cub Scout leaders from units in Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Canyon, Pleasant Hill, Alamo and Danville held a regular monthly roundtable and training session recently at Acalanes High School. H. J. Merrick, newly-appointed scout commissioner for the Diablo District, directed the meeting.

Meeting together for discussion of points of general interest, the group then separated into two units for special training.

Three colored slide films and discussion in back administration were given in the instruction period of the Cub Scout leaders directed by Ray Van Tassel. Scout section men were given instruction in patrol and Troop camping, led by Merrick and E. Schneider of the Lafayette commissioner staff. A council-owned sound film was used in presenting this subject.

Among announcements made were those for a work party scheduled for November 10 at Camp Hampton, a newly-acquired council campsite on Bear Creek Road near Orinda, and a special Junior Leaders' Training Course set for December 15.

Gordon Hawkins, Diablo District Boy Scout executive, read an article reporting that the Boy Scout movement is under bitter attack in Russia. Hawkins stated that Boy Scout leaders, through their work with youth, were definitely helping to save America and commended them for their fine spirit and untiring efforts.

The next roundtable meeting was announced for November 29.

Among those present were Schneider, Tom Schultz, Orville Sammann, A. G. Hardy, Jack Hewitt, Richard McDemmed, Allen Bartlett and James Goodwin of Lafayette; Harry Minor of Orinda; Paul Foster, Canyon; Grant Shaw, Bob Buckland, Ray Sutliff and Frank Leonasio of Pleasant Hill; Van Tassel, Frank Wallace and Carol Reschert of Alamo and Danville.

Those present from Walnut Creek were King Parker, Bill Sweetland, Bob Hassler, Art Sellers, Norman Barber, Glen Gleason, Merrick and Hawkins.

They are Dave Grieve, Jim Robertson Jr., Jerry Gray, Bill Simmons, Pete Cook, Stephen Graves, Carol Reechtine, Jerry Wallace, Joyce Moss, Marian Troyer and Chris Johnson.

Accompanying them will be their public speaking instructor, Bert Trullson.

Events scheduled for the all-day contest include radio and drama, progressive panel discussion, serious reading, persuasive reading, humorous reading, and poetry reading.

Camera Club Awards Trophies, Medals

The Contra Costa Camera Club held its annual dinner and final competition at Stan's Brick House in Walnut Creek October 23.

After a roast beef dinner enjoyed by the 39 members and wives present, the main event of the evening took place — the awarding by the judge, R. V. Arntzen, of the trophies and medals for those winning the most points during the year for their prints of colored slides.

Those winning trophies were Guy Spencer in the advanced group, Jerry Winfrey in the beginners class, and Ben Randall in colored slides, for his slide of Yosemite in its fall colors.

The four bronze medals were awarded to John Muir in the beginners class for his "Bridge Pattern" taken at Martinez; to Jack Davis in the advanced class for his zoo scene of an open-mouthed hippopotamus in the water, and to Ben Randall of the salon class for his print, "Early Morning Calm."

When the competition was over, the new officers for '52 were inducted. They are president S. G. Culver, Vice-President Jule Lindsey, Secretary Dr. George Fraser and Treasurer C. P. McVicker.

Next business meeting will be at Orinda Community Church November 13. There will be a demonstration.
